

S. W.

We

Hearing

Hearing Screening
5

The clinician will assess the client's hearing via pure tone at the frequencies of 1000Hz, 2000Hz, and 4000Hz at 20dB.

Materials: Beltone
Audiometer and AAMU
CSD Hearing Screening
Protocol

12.022

Swallowing

Swallowing Inventory

The client/parent will be asked various questions regarding the client's swallowing abilities.

e6

S. W.

Speech & Language	Independent Living Scales  Subscales: 1.Memory/Orientation  2.Managing Money  3.Managing Home and Transportation  4.Health and Safety	Materials: Protocol and Tape recorder  The client will be assessed on general awareness of his surroundings and short-term memory.  The client will be assessed on his ability to count money, perform monetary calculations, pay bills, and take precautions with money.  The client will be assessed on his ability to use the telephone, utilize public transportation and maintain a safe home.  The client will be assessed on his awareness of personal health status and ability to evaluate health problems, handle medical emergencies and take safety precautions.	A. Green	45-55 minutes	5 making a formal evaluation of the speech output pattern.
-------------------	--	--	----------	---------------	---

2.Auditory Comprehension

The client will be assessed on word comprehension, commands and complex ideational material.

3.Oral Expression

The client will be assessed on automatized sequences, repetition of single words and sentences and naming.

4.Reading

The client will be assessed on basic symbol recognition, word identification, oral reading and reading comprehension.

5.Writing

The client will be assessed on mechanics of writing, basic encoding skills,

Voice	Informally Assessed	The client's voice will be informally assessed during the initial meeting while the clinician is establishing rapport by answering questions asked by the clinician. --Tape recorder	A. Green		8
Fluency	Informally Assessed	The client's fluency will be informally assessed during the initial meeting while the clinician is establishing rapport by answering questions asked by the clinician. -Tape recorder	A. Green		9